

DYSTOPIAN

Definition: 'utopia' was a word coined to refer to an ideal world. The seeming impossibility of this perfection has led to the concept of dystopia (or anti-utopia). Dystopian novels are set in the future, based on grim predictions of doom awaiting mankind.

Author	Title or Series
Aguirre, Ann	Razorland series
Atwood, Margaret	The handmaid's tale
Augarde, Steve	X Isle
Bacigalupi, Paolo	Ship breaker
Baggott, Julianna	Pure series
Beale, Fleur	Juno series
Beckett, Bernard	Genesis
Bradbury, Ray	Fahrenheit 451
Caswell, Brian	A cage of butterflies
Collins, Suzanne	Hunger Games trilogy
Condie, Ally	Matched trilogy
Crossan, Sarah	Breathe
Dashner, James	Maze runner series
Dick, Philip K.	Do androids dream of electric sheep?
DuPrau, Jeanne	City of Ember
Eaton, Anthony	Darklands trilogy
Fforde, Jasper	Shades of grey: the road to High Saffron
Grant, Michael	Gone series
Grant, Mira	Feed
Gray, Eva	Tomorrow girls series
Hager, Mandy	The crossing
Harland, Richard	Worldshaker
Higgins, Jane	The bridge
Higgins, Simon	Beyond the shaking time
Higson, Charlie	The enemy
Howey, Hugh	Wool series
Huxley, Aldous	Brave new world
Lawrence, Louise	Children of the dust
Lott, Tim	Fearless

Lowry, Lois	The giver
MacDonald, Caroline	The lake at the end of the world
Malley, Gemma	The declaration trilogy
Marion, Issac	Warm bodies
McCarthy, Cormac	The road
Meyer, Stephenie	The host
Murray, Kirsty	Vulture's gate
Ness, Patrick	Chaos walking series
Price, Lissa	Starters series
Pryor, Michael	The mask of Caliban
Rossi, Veronica	Under the never sky series
Roth, Veronica	Divergent series
Sanderson, Brandon	Steelheart
Shannon, Samantha	The bone season
Stasse, Lisa M.	The forsaken
Treggiari, Jo	Ashes, ashes
Wells, Dan	Partials series
Westerfield, Scott	Uglies series
Wiggins, Bethany	Stung
Young, Moira	Dustlands series
Zorn, Claire	The sky so heavy